DIAC meets BACHEM

Dear DIAC-members,

It's our pleasure to invite you to our annual member assembly of the Division of Industrial & Applied Chemistry of the Swiss Chemical Society on June 15, 2026. Our assembly offers the unique opportunity to visit and get to know BACHEM in Bubendorf, Basel-Land. Bachem is a leading company in the development and manufacture of peptides and oligonucleotides. They have made headlines in the recent years for their strong growth, major investments, and expansion plans. A great chance to learn, network, and get deeper insights during the lab and production tour!

Kind regards,

Dr. Niklaus Künzle, President
